Iowa State University campus collaborators aim to provide a day-long modern leadership initiative and networking opportunities for undergraduate Womxn and individuals with marginalized gender identities. Throughout the day, we intend to provide a series of related experiences that are tailored to serve all students at Iowa State University. We recognize individuals who do not identify within the binary categories of man of woman prioritizing all students varying in gender, and race. Students will engage in sessions such as: micro-aggressions, micro-inequities, gender differences, taking risks, the impostor syndrome, and becoming confident leaders. Additionally, students participate in panels and networking activities with industry and ISU professionals.
